Members of the California Diversity Council’s committees should be completely familiar with the objectives and assignments of their respective committees; they should be available for committee assignments and committee meetings; and they should make every effort to contribute to and be active in the projects assigned. The Chair or Co-Chairs of each committee shall make monthly reports in writing; report on these committee reports during monthly Leader Calls and Chapter Meetings; and submit these written reports to their chapter Secretary for use as part of the meeting minutes.
